"Big Art" at COVS

You may have noticed the "Big Art" developing around the school linked to the topics classes are covering. Look out for:

The rather gruesome Mummy by Birch.

The skeleton and cross section of the human body by Elm.

Spiders webs, dens and swings in the woodland area, and the welcome to COVS Wood sign, made by Willow.

The massive hand prints made by Ash.

Oak have taken things one step further by presenting their "Big Art" as a fashion show in today's assembly.

Most "Big Art" can be found outside each classroom as well as class books that have been written by the pupils.

Radio Waves

We have a new website/online radio station. Look out for us at:

<http://www.radiowaves.co.uk/s/COVS+FM>

This website is run by the children, with articles and interviews that link to the curriculum and events that we have taken part in.

Cars and the Front Entrance

Last week there was an incident with a car pulling up to the front gate almost hitting a child.

The school has made it very clear that the car park at the back of the school is available for parents who wish to bring their children to school by car. There is no need for cars to use the front entrance at all.

The front entrance is used by children walking to school. Cars and children do not mix.

The school Governors request that all parents using cars drop their children off in the car park.

This will avoid any incidents in the future.
